Discuss specific behavioral issues with the parent and request their input in resolving the safety issue.

1. If this fails to result in changed behavior, meet with center staff, Parent Family and Community Engagement supervisor, etc. to discuss a plan of action that:
   a. describes the specific unsafe, rude, or threatening behavior of the parent
   b. outlines staff’s commitment to work together to solve this problem in a supportive fashion
2. Set up a written behavioral contract with the parent which specifically defines;
   i. appropriate and inappropriate behaviors
   ii. consequences for any violation of appropriate behavior including asking a parent to leave the premises, and calling the police.
   iii. Document to be signed by the parent and attending staff as appropriate.
3. Share with supervisors, managers, etc.
4. If parent blatantly or continually violates this contract, proceed with outlined consequences including possible exclusion of parent from Head Start premises.
